DECIDEDLY MODERN WITH VISUAL APPEAL

Organic Elements, Rich Colors And Geometric Expressions Anchor This Fort Lauderdale Residence In The 21st Century With The Creation Of A Harmonious Space With A Contemporary Aesthetic

ABOVE AND RIGHT: Removing a high faux tower piece and adding windows modified the unique shape of the entrance tower. In the living area, right, the red faux-leather fireplace wall lends a vertical element that draws the eyes upward to the floating spiral stairway.

COVER: A fountain area complete with variable streams and subtle lighting emanates the soothing sound of trickling water and animates the patio and pool area.

The foyer creates a dramatic pause with the "Morning Glory" floor lamp from Ayala Serfaty's line of organic lamps. "Its movement begins in a vertical motion and fans out at the top"

Inspired by a nautilus seashell, the curved lines of this spiral staircase offer a floating upwards movement.
